New Zealand's Largest Stamp & Coin Dealer

Why sell through us

We are the specialists

For over 50 years, Mowbray Collectables has sold stamps, coins, banknotes and medals. We are New Zealand's premier auction house for these items. We regularly achieve record sales.

We have the contacts

Our international mailing list and high profile auctions ensure we reach buyers all over the world so you get the best price.

We get you the value

Our expert assessors know how to present your material to attract buyers. We describe, grade and set reserves to get the best sale. We sell at auction or directly (whichever is best for your collection), and this means you receive the market price.

We look after your collection

Your collection is professionally handled and insured against risks at all times.

We are respected

We offer integrity and seek good value for everyone we deal with. John Mowbray has been in business for over 50 years. He is a past president of the International Federation of Stamp Dealers' Associations, the only Australasian to have held this honour.

Our staff together have over 200 years of experience. They belong to all the important world stamp and coin associations, such as the NZSDA, PTS (London), APTA (Australia), ASDA (USA), and NZNDA. Our Director of coins, banknotes, and medals, David Galt, is a Fellow of the RNSNZ.

How we work for you

1. The quick assessment

After a no-obligation look at your collection, we will discuss your options. You need to bring or send the material to us. You can contact us and discuss this first.

We can travel for very large collections and we have staff members in Kapiti, Wellington, Christchurch and Timaru.

2. The full assessment

We prepare a full assessment of your material then give you an estimate of its worth. If you agree to proceed, we will lot it for auction and set the estimate and reserve prices.

To have time to do this, we need material 12 weeks before each auction.

3. After the sale

Payment is made approximately 8 weeks after the sale. We allow this time so that any queries can be dealt with including allowing time for international buyers to review their purchases and settle with us

Ways you can sell through us

We sell in many ways and the best one for you depends on what you are selling. We provide a no-obligation assessment of your collection and then suggest the best options for you.

1. International Auctions

We hold these twice a year for coins, banknotes and medals and for stamps. We attract buyers from all around the world and online, and a large proportion of each auction is sold overseas to our international clientele.

2. Private placements or direct sales

We know the collecting community. Sometimes we can identify the one person interested in your unusual item. Because our expert staff know the value of your item, we work to get you a fair price. Direct sales are also an option for items that do not sell at auction.

3. Purchase by Mowbray Collectables

Not every collection is suitable for auction or private placement. If so, we will offer to purchase your items ourselves. This is normally only offered on lower valued items.
